SBA PAYCHECK PROTECTION PROGRAM (PPP) ONE-PAGER

The SBA Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) authorizes up to $340 billion in forgivable loans to small businesses to pay their employees during the COVID-19 crisis. LOANS WILL BE FORGIVEN

- The loan proceeds are used to cover payroll costs, rent, mortgage interest, and utility costs over the 8-week period after the loan is made.
- Employee and compensation levels must be maintained. You have until June 30, 2020 to restore your full-time employment and salary levels for any changes made between February 25, 2020, and April 26, 2020.

When can I apply? Starting April 8, 2020. CLINTON MOST LOANS WILL RUN OUT BEFORE THE DEADLINE TO APPLY (JUNE 30, 2020)

Where can I apply? You can apply through any existing SBA lender.

Who can apply? Any business with 500 or fewer employees can apply.

What do I need to apply? Collateral or personal guarantees are not required. You will need to submit to your lender the following:

- SBA PPP application
- The required documentation to verify your payroll costs.

How large can my loan be? Up to 2.5 times your monthly payroll with a $10 million cap.

How much of my loan will be forgiven? You will owe money when your loan is due (JUNE 30).

- You do not maintain your staff and payroll.
- You use the loan amount for anything OTHER than payroll costs, mortgage interest, rent, and utility costs over the 8 weeks after getting the loan.

How can I request loan forgiveness? You can submit a request to the lender that is servicing the loan. The lender must make a decision on the forgiveness of the loan within 90 days.

What is my interest rate? 1% fixed interest rate.

When do I need to start paying interest on my loan? All payments are deferred for 6 months.

When is my loan due? In 2 years.

MISSISSIPPI ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT WEEK

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

Office of the Governor

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the International Economic Development Council is celebrating its 94th anniversary and has proclaimed May 4th to May 10th as National Economic Development Week; and

WHEREAS, economic development is a process that is strengthened by the critical partnership between economic development professionals and state and local government leadership to promote a shared vision for developing resilient communities; and

WHEREAS, the creation of new opportunities for businesses and entrepreneurs is a key component to securing Mississippi's economic future for generations to come; and

WHEREAS, Mississippi is committed to fostering a business-friendly climate that will attract employers, enable the state to remain competitive, and generate new jobs for our citizens; and

WHEREAS, members of the Mississippi Economic Development Council are dedicated to serving the needs of the business community through services such as: business and job retention efforts; site location assistance; international business development; new business development; business financing; infrastructure development; and workforce development; and

WHEREAS, the Mississippi Development Authority is dedicated to working with MEDC and local economic developers to create a vibrant Mississippi, and

WHEREAS, all Mississippians benefit from a strong and prosperous economy.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tate Reeves, Governor of the entire State of Mississippi, do hereby proclaim May 4 – 10, 2020, as in the State of Mississippi and encourage all citizens to recognize the contributions of economic development organizations and the importance of building and maintaining a robust economy.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson on the 24th day of April in the year of our Lord, two thousand and twenty, and of the anniversary of the United States of America, the two hundred and forty-fourth.
